

Britain's Top 100 courses under £100

Welcome to our latest addition of Britain's top 100 golf courses. Here we present the best courses that Britain has to offer under £100 per round...

But they are also out of reach, through varying degrees of exclusivity and expense, for the vast majority of us.

As a magazine aimed squarely at club golfers like you, we wanted to create a list that more realistically reflected your budget.

It isn't that we think £100 is a trifling amount to spend on a single green fee, far from it, or that this is the cut-off point between the game being affordable and not.

But we had to draw a line somewhere and we do think that, for most people, as a special treat or the centrepiece of a golf trip, £100 is a realistic price to pay. And also, most courses in this feature are priced well below £100.

What we have sought to create is the Affordable Top 100.

We hope our Top 100 – which we intend next month to follow with 50 more genuine contenders for inclusion – provokes lively debate up and down the land.

But most of all, we hope that it inspires you to go and play somewhere new when the weather improves and, in doing so, discover a new favourite course or part of the country.

And whether or not you agree with our final order (and let's face it, you probably won't), we hope you agree the following pages provide a worthy showpiece of some of the best courses that are ready to welcome golfers like you.

We are proud of this list. We believe it is robust, considered and informed because we have been out and played the courses that are featured.

Hopefully you will enjoy it too.

“ We did not class twilight rates or afternoon discounts as being applicable. The standard weekday single-round green fee had to be under £100. ”

Machrihanish Dunes, Dunbar and Seacroft all feature here as we reach the halfway stage in our countdown of the top 100 UK courses under £100

Machrihanish Dunes

50 - Machrihanish Dunes, Argyll & Bute
2013 green fee: £70

The new (McLay) Kidd in town is Mach Dunes, just a few years old and next to the original Machrihanish. It's fantastic, and is getting better with every year.

Why it's special: This is completely natural seaside golf, dictated by the often wild pitches and rolls of the land
