

THE KINTYRE CLUB

The Ugadale Hotel at The Village at Machrihanish Dunes has established the Kintyre Club in the spirit of the original club of the same name, which was founded in 1825 by Glasgow businessmen with roots in the Kintyre region. The original Kintyre Club remained in existence for over 125 years – right up until the 1980s. It was founded as a charitable and social club whose primary purpose was to raise funds and distribute charitable donations to Kintyre residents.

Today's Kintyre Club will follow in the original Club's footsteps. In addition, Members and their guests have dining privileges at The Ugadale Hotel's Kintyre Club restaurant. Access to this private dining room is restricted to a select few*, including Kintyre Club members and their guests.

Annual dues for the Kintyre Club are £10. In the spirit of the original Kintyre Club, 100 percent of all dues received will be donated to Kintyre-area charities.

*Entry will be restricted to The Kintyre Club members and their guests, guests of The Ugadale Hotel & Cottages, guests of The Royal Hotel in Campbeltown and golfers that have played Machrihanish Dunes that day.
