

3 MACHRIHANISH DUNES

Tucked away on the Mull of Kintyre, Machrihanish Dunes offers everything that is brilliant about seaside links golf.

It might be tricky to get to – a boat from Troon is the best bet – but it is worth the effort. This is the new kid on the block, having only opened in 2009, but it is brilliant – think wild and rolling – and getting better with every year. The historic Ugadale Hotel is located just steps from the ocean and the 1st tee at Machrihanish, which has stood since around 1876, and features spectacular guest rooms and suites, the Serenity Spa and the Kintyre Club, a warm and inviting restaurant and bar in a private club setting offering inspired dining and spirited good times. Next door you'll find the Ugadale Cottages, eight luxurious two-bedroom cottages. Tourism Scotland voted The Village at Machrihanish Dunes the Resort of the Year for 2013.
